Provide for Tenants in Towns in Ireland Security in their Holdings and Improvements, and to enable fair Judicial Rents to be determined.

WHEREAS in nearly all the towns in Ireland the owners and occupiers of business premises and private dwellings have between them and the owners in fee several intermediate lessees who have certain terms outstanding between such owners and occupiers:

And whereas it is expedient that such owners and occupiers should be enabled to acquire the intermediate interests between themselves and the owners in fee, so that owners and occupiers may be encouraged to make improvements in their holdings:

10 That the occupiers of small houses of the working classes shall be entitled to acquire the fee of the houses in which they live:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and 15 by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Town Tenants (Ireland) Act, 1899.

2. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, which date is herein-after referred to as the commencement of this Act.

3. In this Act the following words and expressions shall have the interpretations and meanings in this section assigned to them respectively, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction; (that is to say,) interpretation of terms.

25 "Lessor" means any intermediate owner between the occupying tenant and the owner in fee:

[Bill 62.]

PART L

A.D. 1899.

4.—(1.) From and after the commencement of this Act every lessee as incident to and inseparable from his interest in any lease or life lease granted, before or after the commencement of this Act shall have the right to acquire the reversion expectant or consequent upon the determination of the said term, and the reversions of any superior or intermediate lease or interest and also the freehold reversion in the demised premises in the manner herein-after provided, but a lessee shall not be entitled to exercise such right in respect of part only of the premises demised by such lease except where such part is the subject of a separate tenancy, and such separate tenancy is not of a portion only of a holding.

(2.) Provided nevertheless that in cases where the occupying tenant holds only from year to year, or under agreement for a term not exceeding three years, has not established or carried on any business on the premises or made any outlay which would enhance the value of them, or otherwise acquired any beneficial interest in the premises, the owner or immediate lessor who represents the interest of the person who holds the premises is in all such cases to be entitled to take advantage of all the privileges which this Act confers upon tenants in occupation.

(3.) When the interest of a lessee in a lease or life lease is subject to an incumbrance, then on the purchase by such lessee of such lease, or of the reversion expectant or consequent on the determination of the term, the lease or reversion so purchased shall vest in such incumbrancer in the same manner as if such lease or reversion had been actually conveyed to him by the instrument creating such incumbrance.

(4.) The right to acquire such reversions as aforesaid shall be incapable of being suspended, modified, released, or extinguished.

5. Where the demised premises are comprised in an under lease, the powers hereby conferred on the lessee to acquire the reversions expectant upon the term granted by such under lease, and by any superior or intermediate lease, shall be exercised concurrently.

35 6.—(1.) When a lessee is desirous of acquiring the reversions to the demised premises in pursuance of this Act, he shall serve upon the lessor or lessors, or his or their agent or agents, a notice herein-after described as the prescribed notice, which may be in the Form No. 1 in the schedule to this Act annexed or to the like effect.

40 (2.) Within twenty-one days after the service of the aforesaid notice, the lessor or lessors shall deliver to the lessee particulars of

(3.) Upon receipt of these particulars the lessee shall serve upon 5 the persons, other than the owner in fee, who thereby appear to have a beneficial interest in the demised premises, a notice in the Form No. 3 in the schedule to this Act annexed, and each of such persons shall, within twenty-one days from the date of such service, deliver to the lessee notice of his interest in the demised premises, and the 10 amount of purchase money which he claims for the same, which notice may be in the Form No. 2 in the schedule hereto or other prescribed form.

Production of deeds relating to the reversions and of the lease of the demised premises.

7. Within one calendar month after the service of the prescribed notice the lessee shall, if requested to do so, deliver to the lessor, and 15 any other person upon whom such notice shall have been served, an abstract of the title to the lease, and shall verify such title by the production of the deeds for examination by the lessor. The lessee may in the like manner, and within the same specified time, require from the lessor, and any other person upon whom such 20 notice shall have been served, an abstract of his title to his reversion, and a verification of his title thereto.

Lessee may purchase reversions by agreement.

8. The lessor may agree with the lessee, and all other persons who are beneficially interested in the demised premises, and any tenant for life or person having the powers of a tenant for life 25 under any settlement comprising or affecting the demised premises, to acquire their interests by purchase, and in the case of any such tenant for life or person having the powers of a tenant for life it shall not be necessary, notwithstanding the provisions of the Settled Land Act, 1884, to obtain the leave or sanction of the High Court 30 of Justice to such agreement, purchase, or sale.

Application to court.

9.—(1.) Where the lessee and other persons interested in the demised premises other than the owner in fee are unable to agree as to the amount of purchase money, or where any doubt or difficulty is alleged to exist as to the title of the lessor or other person, the 35 lessee may make an application to the court. Such application may be made at the option of the applicant to the Land Commission Court, or, if the amount does not exceed three hundred pounds, to the county court, but such application shall be subject to all such particulars and offers on the part of the applicants as are required 40 to be contained in any notice or notices set out in the schedule

hereto, and shall be in such form as may be prescribed under any rules made under this Act; and the court shall be empowered to hear and determine all points of difference between the parties and settle the amount to be paid by the lessee for the purchase of the 5 respective interests of the parties concerned, and shall direct the apportionment and distribution of such purchase moneys respectively among the persons entitled thereto, and may, subject to the provisions of this Act, make such orders as to costs as may be deemed expedient.

10 (2.) The application to the court shall briefly state the points upon which the decision of the court is desired, and it shall also include the following particulars :

- (a.) The name and address and description of the lessee ;
- (b.) A description of the demised premises and where situate ;
- 15 (c.) The nature and extent of the applicant's interest in such premises ;
- (d.) The names, addresses, and descriptions of the lessor and all persons having or reputed to have a beneficial interest or estate in the aforesaid premises.

20 (3.) In making an application under this section the applicant shall deposit in court a sum equal in amount to one year's rent of the demised premises as a security towards any costs and expenses that may be incurred in connexion with his application.

10. As soon as conveniently may be after the receipt of the application the court shall fix a day to hear and determine the matters in dispute between the parties other than matters relating to title, and shall give due notice of the same to the applicant, the lessor, and all other persons interested or reputed to be interested in the demised premises.

Court to fix a day for hearing and to send notices to parties.

30 11. Subject to any rules that may be prescribed it shall be lawful for any of the parties to such application to require the points in dispute to be settled by a jury, and in that event a jury shall be empanelled in accordance with the practice usually observed in connexion with actions under the County Court (Ireland) Acts.

Jury may be demanded by any of the parties.

35 12. In determining the amount of purchase money to be paid to the lessor and other persons interested in pursuance of any application under this Act regard shall be had to the following directions :

Assessment of purchase money.

- 40 (a.) The purchase money shall be the sum which in the opinion of the court is the value of the present interests with the reversions in questions expectant upon the determination of the lease or leases.

(b.) There shall be excluded from the computation of such purchase money the value of any improvements made by the lessee after or in pursuance of the granting of the lease, <sup>5</sup> unless the same were expressly made in pursuance of antecedent covenants or agreements entered into by him;

(c.) If the applicant or his predecessor in title shall have made improvements, or incurred any outlay for which by law, custom, or contract he is entitled at the date of the hearing to be <sup>10</sup> compensated by the lessor, allowance shall be made for the present value of such improvement or outlay in the assessment of the purchase money;

(d.) Where intermediate lessors have only acquired an interest in the leases of the lands originally granted by the owner in fee and not in the buildings, the court shall, in fixing the amount of compensation to which they are entitled, have regard to the occupier who has actually built or who represents the actual builder of the premises <sup>15</sup> which have been placed upon the land and the amount paid by him or his predecessors for the interest which he has acquired in such buildings. In dealing with these cases the court shall have evidence from all parties interested;

(e.) Unless the lessor and all other persons interested concur in releasing the lessee from the obligation of observing the <sup>20</sup> restrictive covenants of the leases of the aforesaid premises, the burden of such covenants shall be taken into account in arriving at the amount of purchase money, and the same shall thereupon cease, save such covenants as may be contained in the lease from the owner in fee.

Conveyance
cannot be
proved.

13.—(1.) Where it appears that the title of the lessor or other person other than the owner in fee claiming or reputed to be beneficially interested in the demised premises cannot be expeditiously deduced or proved, the court shall, upon being satisfied that the lessor or his predecessor in title, or other person other than <sup>25</sup> the owner in fee claiming to have a superior interest in the said premises has been in the actual receipt of the rent reserved by the lease for the ~~twelve~~ years immediately preceding the application to the court, be empowered to make an order conveying the demised premises to the lessee subject to the payment of the purchase money <sup>30</sup> into court.

(2.) The court shall subsequently proceed to ascertain the respective rights of the several persons claiming to be entitled to the purchase money, and may make such order for its distribution among them in respect to their respective interests as may be deemed just.

14.—(1.) On a purchase by a lessee of a lease under this Act— A.D. 1890.

5 (a.) All covenants, agreements, and provisions contained in such lease, or in any superior or intermediate lease except a lease granted direct by the owner in fee binding, the lessee under such lease to do or omit to do any of the following acts, or any covenants, provisions, or agreements to the like purport or effect, shall be void as from the completion of such purchase, namely :— Observance of restrictive covenants.

10 (i.) Not to assign, demise, or part with the possession of the demised premises without the consent of the lessor ;

15 (ii.) To furnish to the lessor or his solicitors copies of all deeds of assignment or under-lease ;

20 (iii.) To pay any fee on the registration of any assignment or under-lease ;

(iv.) Not to make any structural alteration or addition to the property without the consent, whether in writing or not, of the lessor.

25 (b.) But all covenants, agreements, and provisions binding the lessee to do or omit to do any of the following acts, or any covenants, agreements, or provisions to the like purport and effect, shall, during the continuance of the term created by the lease in which such covenants are contained, remain in full force and enforceable by action or injunction against the lessee or his successors in title by the person who but for the purchase by the lessee under this Act would for the time being be entitled to enforce such covenants and by the local authority :—

30 (i.) To make or construct any buildings or roads or to contribute towards the cost of construction or maintenance of roads, party walls, sewers, drains, wells, and any other conveniences used in common with the adjoining owners, occupiers, or lessees ;

35 (ii.) To repair and keep the premises in repair ;

(iii.) To ensure from damage by fire whether in any particular office or offices or not, and to reinstate the premises in case of damage by fire ;

40 (iv.) To pay rates, taxes, tithe, or other outgoings ;

(v.) To exercise or not to exercise on the demised premises any particular trade or business, or to deal with any particular person or company, or to use the property only in a particular manner, or against committing or permitting nuisances :

(vi.) To do any act which may or will be beneficial to the demised premises, or to any other property of the lessor or his superior landlord, or tenant, or to abstain from doing any act which may or will be prejudicial to the demised premises :

(vii.) Any other restrictive covenants, agreements, or provisions.

Payment of purchase money into court and issue of certificate of purchase.

15. The lessee shall within one month from the date of the order fixing the amount of the purchase money, or within such further time as the court may direct, pay the same into court in the prescribed manner, and upon such payment he shall be entitled to a certificate of purchase specifying in the prescribed form the 15 proceedings and determination of the court, and the names and interests of the lessor and other persons to whom the prescribed notice was given, and the restrictive covenants (if any) to which the demised premises remain subject ; and such certificate shall operate as a conveyance from the day of its date to the applicant 20 of all the interest in such premises that was vested in such lessor or other persons at the date of the application or of the ascertainment of the purchase money.

Distribution of purchase money.

16.—(1.) On receipt of the said sum the court shall give one month's notice to the lessor and other persons interested of the 25 intention to distribute the said sum among the persons severally entitled thereto ; and on the expiration of such notice, and on being satisfied by affidavits of the said lessor and other persons that they still remain entitled to the same, the court shall order the purchase money to be paid over to them according to their respective rights. 30

(2.) The court shall make such order as in its discretion may be deemed just and expedient in regard to the payment over of such sum as aforesaid, or in regard to the retention by the court of such sum or any part thereof pending any further inquiries as to the right of any person to receive the same.

(3.) On the purchase by a lessee of any lease, and which is an estate or interest within the meaning of the Settled Estates Act, 1877, as being subject to a settlement or being settled estate within the meaning of the said Act, or is settled land, or is subject to or comprised in any settlement, the purchase money for 40 such lease shall be paid to the persons who under the said Acts are thereby authorised to receive and give receipts for capital moneys arising from a sale under the said Acts or either of them, and shall be dealt with and be subject to the same provisions in all respects as if the purchase under this Act were a sale effected by a tenant for life or person having the powers of a tenant for life under the 5 Settled Land Act, 1882.

Provided always, that it shall not be necessary as against the lessee to obtain the consent of any court to the carrying out of any sale to a lessee of any such lease as aforesaid under the provisions of this Act.

10 After payment by the lessee of the purchase money as before provided, the lessee shall not be made a party to any application to the court under the Settled Estates Act, 1877, the Settled Land Act, 1882, and the Settled Land Act, 1894, or any of them, and shall not be liable to any costs, charges, or expenses in or about 15 any application thereunder.

17. In the event of the disability by infancy, coverture, insanity, or otherwise of any person who but for such disability would have been entitled to the benefit of this Act, or to be treated as a lessor or person beneficially interested under this Act, the powers and 20 duties of such person shall devolve upon his trustee, committee, guardian, or person who is entitled to receive the rent or profits of his estate on his behalf.

Provision for cases of disability.

18. Nothing in this Act contained shall authorise any trustee or legal representative to make an application under this Act unless 25 he be authorised thereto by the consent of all necessary persons or by the nature of his trust, or be permitted by an order of a judge of the High Court of Justice, who shall have power on petition to grant such permission if he shall see fit to do so, and with such sanction any moneys, stock, funds, or securities subject to the 30 trust may be applied in the purchase of the reversions of any demised premises in pursuance of this Act, and the premises so acquired shall be conveyed to the trustees as the court shall in its discretion direct.

Trustees
chase under certain conditions.

19. Where any of the parties make default in complying with 35 any of the obligations imposed on them by this Act, or where any error, omission, or irregularity takes place in any proceedings under this Act owing to inadvertence, it shall be lawful for the court to grant any relief that it may deem just, either by extension of time or rectification of any previous order or otherwise howsoever, upon 40 such terms and conditions as may be deemed expedient.

Provision in case of irregularities.

20.—(1.) The costs of the lessee in connexion with the application to the court and any other proceedings under this Act up to the [62.]

Costs to be paid by lessee.

A.D. 1899. payment of the purchase money shall, subject as herein-after provided, be borne and paid by the lessee, and the court shall make such order as may be required for the payment of the said costs out of the deposit in court, and for the repayment to the lessee of the balance of such deposit (if any), but if any costs remain unpaid they shall be an equitable charge upon the lessee's interest in the demised premises, and the balance so remaining shall be paid in such manner as the court may direct.

(2.) In taxing cost under this Act only one set of costs shall be allowed as payable by the lessee, except in cases where the court shall otherwise decide.

Costs in case of default of lessee or of unfounded claim.

21. Where the lessee has wilfully or negligently delayed or made default in proceeding with his application, or where any party to the application under this Act has in the opinion of the court made an unfounded claim or contention, the court may, in its discretion, make an order requiring such person to pay the whole or any portion of the costs which may have been incurred by reason of such default or unfounded claim.

Limitation in certain cases of right to apply to court.

22. If the application of any lessee be dismissed, or his right to the benefit of this Act be determined against him, or he decide and be permitted no further to proceed by reason of his being dissatisfied with the title of the lessor or other persons claiming to be interested in the demised premises, he and all persons claiming by, through, or under him by virtue of any assignment, sub-demise, or other transfer of interest subsequent to the date of his said application, shall be barred from taking further proceedings under this Act for the space of five years without special leave from the court. And in no case shall he or they take any further proceeding without first paying all such costs as may be ordered by the court in respect of the said application.

Life leaseholds within provisions of Act.

23. The powers herein contained shall be applicable to life leases as defined by this Act, and any person entitled to any such lease shall be and is hereby empowered to acquire all the reversions other than that of the owner in fee in the demised premises by purchase in the manner and under the limitations and conditions in this Act provided, and the forms in the schedule hereto may be varied so far as necessary and adapted thereto.

PART II.

A.D. 1899.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

24. The county court shall have no jurisdiction to entertain an application where the amount claimed by a lessor exceeds three hundred pounds. Limit of county court jurisdiction.

25. No persons shall be entitled to make application to the court under this Act unless he is in actual occupation of the premises, and unless the unexpired terms of the intermediate interests between himself and the owner in fee shall in all not exceed a period of fifteen years.

26. All orders of the Land Commission Court shall be subject to appeal on matters of law in the same manner as appeals are now made from the decisions of the Lands Commissioners, and all orders of the county court shall be subject to appeal in accordance with the procedure in that court. All orders relating to costs and all decisions of the court on matters of fact, or in the exercise of its discretion, shall in like manner be subject to appeal by leave either of the judge or of the court before which the appeal is to be heard.

20 (1.) In case of appeals all costs thereof shall be in the discretion of the court to which appeal is made.

27. Rules for the purposes of this Act may be made and altered from time to time by the like persons and in the like manner in which rules may be made under and for the purposes of the Land Commission Courts Acts in Ireland and the County Court Act in Ireland.

28. Any deeds, notices, or other documents in the form contained in the First Schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like purport and effect as may be prescribed, shall, as regards form and expression in relation to the provisions of this Act, be deemed sufficient for all purposes.

29. Notices, orders, and other documents under this Act may be in writing or print, or partly in writing and partly in print, and when issued by the court shall be deemed sufficiently authenticated if they bear the official seal of the court.

A.D. 1888. 30. Any notice, order, or document required or authorised by this Act to be served on any person may be served—Service of notices. (a.) By delivering the same to such person; or (b.) By leaving the same at the usual or last known place of abode of such person; or (c.) By forwarding the same by post in a prepaid letter addressed to such person at his usual or last known place of abode. 5

If the notice is served by post it shall be deemed to have been served at the time when the letter containing the notice would be delivered in the ordinary course of post, and in proving such service 10 it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice was properly addressed and put into the post.
